PART III - NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-CEN, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

RespireRx Pharmaceuticals Inc. (the "Registrant") was unable, without unreasonable effort or expense, to file its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the period ended June 30, 2020 (the "Quarterly Report") by the August 14, 2020 filing date applicable to smaller reporting companies due to additional time needed for the Board of Directors (acting as the Audit Committee) of the Registrant to complete its review of the Quarterly Report with the Registrant's independent registered accounting firm. This delay was also a result of the current public health crisis and related disruptions in working arrangements of parties necessary to the coordination of the process. As a result, the Registrant is still in the process of preparing disclosure and accumulating validating information needed to complete the Quarterly Report and requires additional time for its completion. The Registrant intends to file a complete Quarterly Report as soon as practicable within the extension period of five calendar days provided under Rule 12b-25 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.
