PART II — RULES 12b-25(b) AND (c)

If the subject report could not be filed without unreasonable effort or expense and the registrant seeks relief pursuant to Rule 12b-25(b), the following should be completed. (Check box if appropriate)

- (a) The reason described in reasonable detail in Part III of this form could not be eliminated without unreasonable effort or expense;
- (b) The subject annual report, semi-annual report, transition report on Form 10-K, Form 20-F, Form 11-K, Form N-SAR or Form N-CSR, or portion thereof, will be filed on or before the fifteenth calendar day following the prescribed due date; or the subject quarterly report or transition report on Form 10-Q or subject distribution report on Form 10-D, or portion thereof, will be filed on or before the fifth calendar day following the prescribed due date; and
- (c) The accountant’s statement or other exhibit required by Rule 12b-25(c) has been attached if applicable.

PART III — NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

RespireRx Pharmaceuticals Inc. (the “Registrant”) was unable, without unreasonable effort or expense, to file its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the period ended September 30, 2022 (the “Quarterly Report”) by November 14, 2022 filing date applicable to smaller reporting companies due to additional time needed for the Board of Directors (acting as the Audit Committee) of the Registrant to complete its review of the Quarterly Report with the Registrant’s independent registered accounting firm. As a result, the Registrant is still in the process of preparing disclosures and accumulating validating information needed to complete the Quarterly Report and requires additional time for its completion. The Registrant intends to file a complete Quarterly Report as soon as practicable within the extension period of five calendar days provided under Rule 12b-25 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.
