Item 8.01 Other Events

On September 16, 2014, the Nevada Supreme Court issued its rulings with regards to the Company's Schaller litigation.

In its findings, the Court favorably reversed the $9.6 million default judgment against the Appellants and reaffirmed the default against the Appellants.

The case has now been remanded back to the lower court, which will allow the Company and other Appellants the opportunity to conduct their discovery and defend itself from what it believes is a wrongful suit.
