The remaining outstanding shares of common stock are held by approximately 80 other shareholders of record.

The affirmative vote of the holder of a majority of the outstanding common stock of the Company is required to adopt the proposal described in this Information Statement. PROPOSAL ADOPTED BY SHAREHOLDER ACTION BY WRITTEN CONSENT

PROPOSAL 1:

TO AUTHORIZE A REVERSE SPLIT OF THE COMMON STOCK ISSUED AND OUTSTANDING ON A ONE NEW SHARE FOR ONE THOUSAND OLD SHARES BASIS. FRACTIONAL SHARES WILL BE ROUNDED UP TO THE NEXT WHOLE SHARE. (THIS ACTION REQUIRES AN AMENDMENT TO THE CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION AND REQUIRES THE APPROVAL OF THE FINANCIAL INDUSTRY REGULATORY AUTHORITY (“FINRA”).

A copy of the Certificate of Amendment to the Certificate of Incorporation effecting the Reverse Stock Split is attached as Exhibit A to this Information Statement (the “Reverse Stock Split Certificate of Amendment”).

The Reverse Stock Split Certificate of Amendment will be effective upon receipt of approval from the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (“FINRA”) and the filing with the Secretary of the State of Delaware (the “Reverse Stock Split Effective Date”). New Common Stock certificates will not be issued at the Reverse Stock Split Effective Date. The Corporation’s Common Stock are subject to quotation on the OTC Markets, Pink Open Market, under the symbol “SSOK”.

Our Majority Shareholder has approved a pro-rata reverse split of our common stock, by which up to each one thousand shares would become one share. The effective date of the reverse split will be approximately thirty days following the date of the mailing of this Information Statement and upon filing of documentation with FINRA. This is not a “going private” transaction, and shareholders which are reduced to less than one share will be redeemed as set forth above. This requires an Amendment to the Certificate of Incorporation to accomplish the reverse split.

Due to the current number of issued and outstanding shares of common stock as of May __, 2021 (4,124,247,703) compared to the authorized of 5,000,000,000 common shares), and with the need to seek new funding through issuance of common stock, the Company is poorly positioned under its current market share price. The Company is authorized to issue 5,000,000,000 shares of its common stock. The Company is seeking to uplist to the OTCQB, however its stock price must close above $0.01 per share for 30 days prior to application so a reverse split is necessary. Therefore, a reverse split would allow the Company the ability to uplist to OTCQB.

There are no pending private offerings of shares, nor are there any pending acquisitions for which shares are committed to be issued.

We believe the recent per share price of the common stock has had a negative effect on the marketability of the existing shares, the amount and percentage of transaction costs paid by individual stockholders, and it impairs the potential ability of the Company to raise capital by issuing new shares due to the low price.

We believe that reverse split will be advantageous to us and to all shareholders because it may provide the opportunity for higher share prices based upon fewer shares. It is also a factor that most brokerage houses do not permit or favor lower-priced stocks to be used as collateral for margin accounts. Certain policies and practices of the securities industry may tend to discourage individual brokers within those firms from dealing in lower-priced stocks. Some of those policies and practices involve time-consuming procedures that make the handling of lower priced stocks economically unattractive. The brokerage commissions on the purchase or sale of lower priced stocks may also represent a higher percentage of the price than the brokerage commission on higher priced stocks.

As a general rule, potential investors who might consider making investments in our Company will refuse to do so when the Company has a large number of shares issued and outstanding with no equity. In other words, the “dilution” which new investors would suffer would discourage them from investing, as general rule of experience. A reduction in the total outstanding shares may, without any assurance, make our capitalization structure more attractive.

While our acceptability for ultimate listing on one of the NASDAQ markets or an exchange is presently remote, we believe that it is in the interests of our Company to adjust our capital structure in the direction of conformity with the NASDAQ structural requirements. At the current date, even with the proposed changes we would not meet NASDAQ criteria. NASDAQ requirements change constantly. There is no assurance that the proposed changes will meet NASDAQ requirements or any other exchange when, and if, we are otherwise qualified. There is no assurance that we will qualify for NASDAQ.

Shareholders should note that, after the reverse split, the number of our authorized shares will remain unchanged, while the number of issued and outstanding shares of our Company will be reduced by the factor of the reverse, i.e. one for one thousand shares. It is important to realize that the issuance of additional shares is in the discretion of the Board of Directors, in their best business judgment, and our shareholders will have no right to vote on future issuances of shares except in the event of a merger under Delaware law. This means that, effectively, our shareholders will have no ability or capacity to prevent dilution by the issuance of substantial amounts of additional shares for consideration that could be considerably less than what our existing shareholders paid for their shares. In many events, control of our Company could effectively be changed by issuances of shares without shareholder approval.

As a general rule, potential investors who might consider making investments in our Company will refuse to do so when the Company has a large number of shares issued and outstanding with no equity. In other words, the “dilution” which new investors would suffer would discourage them from investing, as general rule of experience. A reduction in the total outstanding shares may, without any assurance, make our capitalization structure more attractive.

Once the reverse split has occurred, Management believes the Company will then be better structured to seek equity financing because no significant equity investment can be made under the current capital structure. The current price of less than $0.01 per share, impairs the potential ability of the Company to raise capital by issuing new shares and the Company trades in the Pink Sheets for its quotes low price. The Company has not identified any sources of equity financing at this time. There is no assurance that the Company will have any success in seeking equity financing in the future if it chooses to.

Future Dilutive Transactions

It is emphasized that management of the Company may effect transactions having a potentially adverse impact upon the Company’s stockholders pursuant to the authority and discretion of the Company’s management to complete share issuances without submitting any proposal to the stockholders for their consideration. Holders of the Company’s securities should not anticipate that the Company necessarily will furnish such holders with any documentation concerning the proposed issuance prior to any share issuances. All determinations involving share issuances are in the discretion and business judgment of the Board of Directors in their exercise of fiduciary responsibility but require a determination by the Board that the shares are being issued for fair and adequate consideration. The Company has not entered into any such transactions as of the filing of this Information Statement.

The issuance of additional shares in future transactions will allow the following types of actions or events to occur without the current stockholders being able to effectively prevent such actions or events:

1. Dilution may occur due to the issuance of additional shares. The percentage ownership of the Company by the existing shareholders may be diluted from 100% now, after the reverse split to as little as 10%.
2. Control of the Company by stockholders may change due to new issuances.
3. The election of the Board of Directors will be dominated by new large stockholders, effectively blocking current stockholders from electing directors.
4. Business plans and operations may change.
5. Mergers, acquisitions, or divestitures may occur which are approved by the holders of the newly issued shares.

In the future event that the Board continues to issue shares for capital, services, or acquisitions, the present management and stockholders of the Company may not retain control of a majority of the voting shares of the Company. It is likely that the Company may acquire other compatible business opportunities through the issuance of common stock of the Company. Although the terms of any such transaction cannot be predicted, this could result in substantial additional dilution in the equity of those who were stockholders of the Company prior to such issuance. There is no assurance that any future issuance of shares will be approved at a price or value equal to or greater than the price which a prior stockholder has paid, or at a price greater than the then current market price. Typically, unregistered shares are issued at less than market price due to their illiquidity and restricted nature as a result of, among other things, the extended holding period and sales limitations which such shares are subject to.

There is no assurance that any effect of the price of our stock will result, or that the market price for our common stock, immediately or shortly after the proposed changes, if approved, will rise, or that any rise which may occur will be sustained. Market conditions obey their own changes in investor attitudes and external conditions. We are proposing the steps we deem the best calculation to meet the market attractively. However, we cannot control the market's reaction.

Dissenting shareholders have no appraisal rights under Delaware law or pursuant to our constituent documents of incorporation or bylaws, in connection with the proposed reverse split.

The table below shows the effect of the 1,000 for 1 reverse split.

TABLE SHOWING EFFECT OF REVERSE SPLIT ONE THOUSAND FOR ONE

Shares Held Pre-Reverse	Shares Held Post- Reverse
100,000,000	100,000
10,000,000	10,000
1,000,000	1,000
100,000	100
10,000	10
2,000	2
1,000	1

*Shareholders who hold less than 1,000 shares pre-split would have fractional shares after the reverse-split, but such fractional shares will be rounded up to the next whole share.

The reverse stock split may also leave certain stockholders with one or more "odd lots" of new common stock, i.e., stock in amounts of less than 100 shares. These odd lots may be more difficult to sell or require greater transaction cost per share to sell than shares in even multiples of 100. There are frequently situations where transaction costs for odd lots in penny stocks exceed the net proceeds realized from a sale of the odd lot, effectively rendering the odd lot valueless to the holder.
